

Megaleio 2019 Report

We feel really glad to announce that the mega-event 'MEGALEIO 2019' in our St. John Technical Campus hosted by St. John College of Engineering and Management, Palghar on 22nd & 23rd February 2019, is successfully concluded!

The National level Technical Event has seen an overwhelming response from across the technical colleges in Maharashtra and nearby states, leading a footfall of over 2500 participants, students & visitors. Mr. Bhupesh Gharat, Deputy General Manager of Lupin Pvt. Ltd. Boisar was the chief guest for the inaugural ceremony of Megaleio 2019. The event was consisting of 25 competitions and one exhibition, which totally yield a cash prize of more than 1.57 Lakh to the winners.

The event was technically partnered by professional bodies like IEEE, Bombay Section, SAE India and ISTE Student Chapter. Suvidhya Institute of Technology was the title partner of our event whereas Cello Decent Homes Palghar, Mahesh Tutorials, Vego World were the Co-sponsors of the event.

The valedictory function conducted on 23rd February 2019 at 3.30 PM. Mr Satish Walekar, Head of Manufacturing – Auto & Allied Products, Global Wires – India Tata Steel LTD, Boisar was the chief guest for valedictory function. The total count of participants was 2120 of which 564 students from outside campuses had participated in various competitions. The event was media partnered by Palghar Mitra.

The details of the event can be read on website megaleio.sjcem.co.in.

Glimpses

