b. Describe the Method [Policies / Circulars] by evidences that the institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programs for advanced learners and slow learners.

Special Programs for Advanced Learner and Slow Learner

Each type of students has different learning attitudes and learning habits. A faculty must adapt a teaching methodology such that he/she may not lose the attention of the slow learners and turn off the advanced learners.

The purpose of assessment of the learning levels of the students and conduction of activities for them is

- Identification of the slow learners and advanced learners in the class
- To ensure that slow learners and advanced learners are taken care as per their needs
- To help them out for improvement in their academics.

During the Teaching & Learning process (in Classroom and Laboratories), through the student mentoring process and results of internal assessments faculty classifies students as Advanced and Slow learners. To ensure that identification of the Slow and Advanced Learners is carried out properly, a program assessment committee meeting is conducted for the same.

A) Slow Learners are generally characterized as students with superficial learning abilities, poor / slow grasping power, more absenteeism, with attention issues, sometimes with physical, personal and psychological problems and other developmental and diversified issues.

B) Advanced Learners are characterized as students with a meaningful and deep investigation-oriented approach and analytical abilities, good comprehension. They have a core desire to excel. Such students have a proactive attitude towards gaining knowledge in various fields and facing challenges.
